INFORMATION FOR INCOMING EXCHANGE STUDENTS

WELCOME TO BSP

The cosmopolitan city of Berlin is one of the most beautiful and exciting cities to study in. The young and vivid urban life sets European standards for development and creativity.

This video gives you a deeper insight into BSP and also shows our beautiful Berlin campus:

VIDEO ABOUT BSP

The Hamburg campus is located in Hamburg's Hafencity – a lively environment with maritime flair. The young and future-oriented atmosphere offers an optimal framework for innovative business and management courses.

We offer each student excellent individual support and guidance. The BSP's familiar atmosphere, small classes and our Buddy Programme enable you to meet fellow German students and help you settle into your new home quickly.

COURSES OFFERED TO INCOMING STUDENTS

The Bachelor's Program "International Business Administration" is entirely taught in English. The program starts twice per year, therefore each module takes place each semester. Exchange students can choose modules within this program. Furthermore, we offer additional modules taught in English from other study programs and faculties. These courses vary from semester to semester; therefore, we will hand out a finalized list of English taught modules prior to the semester start.

For English taught courses, proof of sufficient language proficiency (English B2 CEFR) is required. If you wish to take part in German taught courses, you must have proof of at least German level B2 (CEFR).
