Application Process

DEADLINES

	Nomination	Student Application
Fall Term	April 1	May 1
Spring Term	September 1	October 1

ELIGIBILITY

Refer to the exchange agreement for eligibility.

NOTE:

Students who wish to study in the Naveen Jindal School of Management (JSOM) must have taken calculus courses, as nearly all JSOM courses list calculus as a prerequisite.

Incoming Exchange Process

NOMINATION

The home university will submit the nomination of the student and unofficial transcript to UT Dallas before the deadline. If the agreement is with the Naveen Jindal School of Management, or the nominated student is a business student, submit the nomination online at: <https://bit.ly/JSOMIncomingExchange>. If the agreement is university-wide, submit the nomination online at: utd.link/PartnerNomination.

APPROVED

If approved, the student will be emailed by our office and asked to complete the online admissions application and submit additional documents (official transcript in English and original language, official English proficiency exam score, degree certificate (if graduate student), etc.)

ADMITTED

- If admitted, the student will:
- Apply for on-campus housing.
  - Be contacted by the International Students and Scholars Office for additional documentation to issue the DS-2019 (financial documents, passport, request form, etc.)
  - Register for international student orientation: icp.utdallas.edu/international-student-orientation
  - Must receive a meningitis vaccination if under 22 years of age. This can be obtained overseas. See details: registrar.utdallas.edu/vaccine

Upon receipt of the DS-2019, the student will obtain a US visa and make travel arrangements. Upon indication, students should work on course registration with their assigned academic advisor at UTD (according to their major) so that they may enroll in courses before arrival at UTD. Courses are subject to availability.

Immigration

Exchange students coming to the US to study must apply for a J-1 visa and will need a DS-2019 from UT Dallas.

See the International Students and Scholars Office (ISSO) website for more information:
isso.utdallas.edu/j-1

Housing

Arrangements are made for exchange students to live in furnished on-campus apartments. See details and price at:
housing.utdallas.edu

Living expenses include housing, food, books, transportation, and other costs. It is estimated that exchange students spend approximately $9,000 per semester.

Arrival Information

See the arrival page for international students for tips on transportation, packing, and other arrival information:

Semester Dates/Timeline

See the Academic Calendar for each semester at utdallas.edu/academics/calendar

	Fall	Spring
First day of class	August 19, 2024	TBA- Usually mid-January
Recommended date of arrival/move-in to housing	August 14, 2024	Mid-week prior to start of classes
Recommended date of orientation	August 16, 2023	Week before start of classes
Last day of final exams	December 13, 2024	TBA- Usually Mid May
Last day to move out of housing	Day after last day of final exams	Day after last day of final exams

It is recommended that students arrive the week before the start of classes to take care of necessary steps upon arrival. A typical schedule of the first week on campus is:

Day 1: Arrival, move-in to housing, take TB test if possible

Day 2-3: Attend the international student orientation, J-1 Exchange student orientation, submit any required admissions documents, purchase items for housing, meet with academic advisor if course schedule is still need to be finalized

Day 4: Get student ID and DART pass, pay fees, attend welcome events and other campus activities, start courses

Insurance

Every international student is required to have health insurance. The majority of international students must take the university's health insurance plan, which costs approximately $1,400 per semester. Waivers can be requested for students who bring government-sponsored health insurance plans that meet coverage requirements and request a waiver before the deadline. See the Student Health Insurance website for more information:

insurance.utdallas.edu/waiver

NOTE: Waivers are not guaranteed and very rarely granted as requirements are specific and not managed internally by the Office of International Education but is rather mandated by the University of Texas System.

Fees

Generally, exchange students must pay the following fees:

Exchange Application and Foreign Credential Fee	$150
International Student Fee	$150
International Orientation Fee	$50
Health Insurance Fee	$1,500 (approx.)
Transcript Fee	$10 (end of semester)
Housing (Application Fee required)	Cost varies

Course Information

Students may choose any open classes that they are eligible for in the course book coursebook.utdallas.edu

There is a wide variety of courses available for both undergraduate and graduate students. All students must meet any prerequisite requirements. Undergraduate students are generally not permitted to take graduate courses.

All international students must be registered in a full course of study (12 credits for undergraduates, 9 credits for graduates). New international students cannot register for classes until they have removed the holds on their account (TB test, international orientation, meningitis vaccine, etc.)

Student Services/Programs
